

File Created by Blogging Rebirth WP Plugin

Nampa Idaho Mls Search

Nampa, ID Real Estate

Nampa is a beautiful and great small city about 15 minutes west of Boise. It is known for being a less expensive extension of the Boise real estate market and is the 2nd largest city in Idaho.

Nampa real estate brings single family and a less expensive location together with a very convenient community. With the Boise river nearby, Nampa can be a place of exciting family excursions, fishing, hiking, and horseback riding. Nampa offers convenient access to the entire Treasure Valley and gives easier access to the ski areas of Bogus Basin, Tamarack, and Brunade ski resorts. Rafting in rivers, and hiking in the foothills and other exciting Idaho outdoor activities are just a short drive away from the convenience of Nampa.

Nampa Real Estate

The Nampa, ID real estate features newer construction and some great historical areas between 1960's-2009 and is set to be a great place for exciting growth in the Treasure Valley. Newer homes range from 120k-180k with the median prices at 165k.

More information on Nampa, ID

Real Estate In Nampa ID

Whether planning a vacation, attending a special event or conference, or considering Nampa for your home, the amenities and friendly people will surely make you feel right "at home."

Nampa, Idaho's second largest city, is located in the southwest corner of Idaho, and easily accessible from Interstate 84, about 20 minutes west of Idaho's capitol city of Boise.

The Nampa Chamber of Commerce is known for its fine hospitality and energizing networking events. The chamber is a partner with more than 40 community organizations and takes pride in its collaborative efforts with the city of Nampa to build a stronger economic climate for our community.

Nampa Idaho Homes

When Native Americans camped along Indian Creek, they utilized this valley's abundant natural resources to the fullest. Now, the land where they hunted deer are covered with farms, homes, businesses, industries and lush fields. In the same spirit, Nampa's modern inhabitants have discovered and capitalized on the area's generous assets. They have built carefully and planned for growth into the next century.

The City of Nampa is one of Idaho's fastest growing cities, and its progress is reflected in an expansive Civic Center, spectacular Recreation Center, versatile Idaho Center, refurbished downtown, attractive shopping centers, comfortable suburbs and progressive industrial parks.

Contact us at www.VisionsRealEstate.com for more information on the Nampa, ID real estate market or other real estate information from around Boise.

You can also find this article published on single file page on filorama.com, and on the tag pages real estate.